As festival season comes to a close we look towards xmas and our tips list, more on that next month though. Since we last spoke, you may not have seen our reviews of Leeds, Board Masters, Green Man and Festival No 6. Planning is already afoot for 2017 and our start of the festival calendar with The Great Escape and we're also thrilled to be a part of a run of gigs from the Brighton festival called The First Fifty.

We added to our presenter roster recently. Rianne Thompson and Thomas Little are on air on Tuesday evenings from 9pm hosting a 2 hour show on alternative weeks. It's also been very hectic recently with regards to our Takeover series. Over the past 6 weeks we've welcomed Oscar, GIRLI, Boxed In and Dream Wife into our studios to play us some of their favourite new acts. If that wasn't enough, we've created a slot on a Friday afternoon for our Album of the Week, where you'll hear a record we've been enjoying in full, and for 2 hours every Thursday you'll hear bangers from yesteryear as part of Throwback Thursday .

This month we made a pretty exciting announcement. We will shortly be launching an Amazing Singles Club – which will be like a dating club, but for you to try out new music. We'll be announcing more details soon, but we are absolutely thrilled to reveal that one of the first releases will be a brand new track from the visceral Avalanche Party. After bringing their noisy garage-punk stylings to a crowd of mud-soaked festival-goers at Reading + Leeds, they locked themselves away for days in the studio recording new music, and we can't wait to bring it to you.

For all the Amazing Record Co. artists, September was been a month jam-packed with shows and festivals. Flying out as far as Russia to play the World Of Drum N Bass festival, The Qemists have hit fest after fest, with even more to come over the next couple of months. Their cover of Korn's Blind features on Metal Hammer's Decades Of Destruction CD this month, which came free with every purchase of the magazine.

Avalanche Party

Boy Jumps Ship played a great set at the PRS for Music Momentum Day alongside Luke Sital-Singh after taking a seat on the panel earlier on that afternoon. As for Therapy?, this month they took the BBC Across The Line 30th birthday bash by storm; even throwing in a cover of Ash's Kung Fu. Right now, Therapy? are getting set to embark on their Wood & Wire acoustic tour next month. Here are 3 tracks from their session live for Amazing Radio to get you in the mood.

It was a bit of a dry summer, musically speaking, over at OurStage HQ, with only a handful of scattered releases from the artists on OurStage.com. Thankfully, with September came some great new music from some of our favorites. We've got a new single from Brooklyn's Late Cambrian, a timely end-of-summer jam from Bronx NY's Yonas, a beautiful video from Beecher's Fault, and a new one called "I Eat Earthquakes Like You For Breakfast" from Tulsa Oklahoma's The House of Jed.

Yonas

We're currently working with some artists based in Hawaii for a new promotion with NextNext.com, and have several artist spotlight features, highlighting the varied styles coming out of the islands. Check here for some great pop, rock, and (of course) reggae artists currently competing to win $5,000 AND helping local charities while they're at it.

Finally, we're on Amazing Radio the 3rd Tuesday of every month, playing the songs ranked by our fan community to the top of the genre charts. Something for everyone here, so if you're looking for something new, stream the latest show now. We feature the Top 5 artists along with some editorially selected nuggets mined from the channels on OurStage.com.
